Strategic planning is critical to any community. Who are we as a community? What are our strengths? What are our needs? How do we continue to build a city that is a wonderful place to live, work, and visit? What city ordinances or services are important in order to accomplish goals for the community?

The City of Longview implements strategic planning efforts at the citywide and departmental levels. These efforts help advise the efforts of City Council and staff. View some of the strategic planning documents below.
